DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a Queen Anne style house built of stone. It has a tall hip roof that rises to a center peak where the chimney is located. On the front are three bays plus a two story polygonal tower on the northeast corner. Across the front and part of the north and south facades is a one story porch supported by short Doric columns above stone piers. Above the two end bays on the south side of the front is a gable with a Palladian window. The bay to the north of this is recessed, containing the entrance on the first floor. The recessed bay above the porch is supported by turned posts with carved corner brackets. The cornice consists of a horizontal plaster band with ornamentation.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This is the only Queen Anne style house in Cambridge constructed of stone. It is a late Queen Anne style house, probably built in the early 20th century. It is one of the more ornate houses on Oakley Street, as most of these homes are large and plain with little ornamentation.
